

Date: March 29, 2017

UCI:

Application no.:

Ukraine

Dear

Thank you for your interest in visiting Canada. After a careful review of your temporary resident visa application and supporting documentation, I have determined that your application does not meet the requirements of the Immigration and Refugee Protection Act and Regulations. I am refusing your application.

In making a decision on an application, a number of factors are considered. These may include but are not limited to:

- the information in the travel and identity documents;
- the reason for the travel to Canada;
- the person's contacts in Canada;
- the person's ties to his or her country of residence (including immigration status, employment and family ties);
- the person's ability to pay for the trip and to support himself or herself while in Canada;
- whether the person is likely to respect the conditions of his or her admission to Canada;
- whether the person is inadmissible to Canada; and
- whether the person would be likely to leave Canada at the end of his/her authorized stay.

To help you understand my decision, the reason(s) are provided on the following pages:

You are welcome to reapply if you feel that you can respond to these concerns and can demonstrate that your situation meets the requirements. All new applications must be accompanied by a new processing fee.

Sincerely,
Embassy of Canada
Visa Section
P.O. Box 200
Kyiv, 01901
Ukraine

Application Enquiry: <https://dmp-portal.cic.gc.ca/cicemail/intro-eng.aspx?mission=kyiv> www.ukraine.gc.ca
www.cic.gc.ca

Subsection 11(1) of the Immigration and Refugee Protection Act (IRPA) provides that any person wishing to become a temporary resident of Canada must satisfy an officer that he or she is not inadmissible to Canada and that she or he meets the requirements of the Act.

Following an examination of your application, I am not satisfied that your application meets the requirements of the Act and the Regulations for the reasons explained below. Please note that only the grounds that are checked off apply to the refusal of your application.

- You have not satisfied me that you would leave Canada at the end of your stay as a temporary resident. In reaching this decision, I considered several factors, including:
 - travel history
 - immigration status in country of residence
 - Family ties in Canada and in country of residence
 - Length of proposed stay in Canada
 - Purpose of visit
 - Employment prospects in country of residence
 - Current employment situation
 - Personal assets and financial status
 - Having a legitimate business purpose in Canada
 - any history of contravening the conditions of admission on a previous stay in Canada.

- I am not satisfied that you have sufficient funds, including income or assets, to carry out your stated purpose in going to Canada or to maintain yourself while in Canada and to effect your departure.

- You have not provided sufficient documentation to support your / your host's income and assets.

- You have made an application for a temporary resident visa in the transit visitor category. As you are planning to remain in Canada longer than 48 hours, you do not meet the requirements of this category. You must make an application for a temporary resident visa in the visitor category and pay the associated cost recovery fees.

- You have submitted documentation which lacks authenticity as part of your application. This has diminished the overall credibility of your submission.

- You have not complied with our request for information, as per section 16(1) of the Immigration and Refugee Protection Act. To date, you have failed to comply with our request for:
 - Completion of a medical examination
 - An interview
 - The following documents: List the documents